Clinton County has three different spectacular bodies of water. Dale Hollow Lake skirts the southern boundaries, Lake Cumberland covers the northern edge and the Cumberland River is the extreme northwestern border of Clinton County. You can go south and fish for world record smallmouth bass, travel north to fish for trophy size stripers or kick back and wade the Cumberland River for premier trout fishing!

Restaurants, lodging, shopping, a wellness center, relaxation, hiking and southern charm awaits! When you think of where you could go to enjoy Kentucky's best kept secret, make plans to visit Albany, KY in Clinton County and all we have to offer!
